ACTE SÉPARÉ ET SECRET.

LE Roi très Chrétien déclare en conséquence de l'union intime qui subsiste entre lui et le Roi d'Espagne, qu'en concluant avec les Etats-Unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale le traité d'amitié et de commerce et celui d'alliance éventuelle et deffensive, Sa Majesté a entendu et entend réserver expressement, comme elle réserve par le présent acte séparé et secret à Sa dite Majesté Catholique la faculté d'accéder aux dits traités, et de participer à leurs stipulations, dans quelque tems qu'elle le juge à propos, bien entendu néanmoins que si quelques unes des stipulations des dits traités ne converoient point au Roi d'Espagne, Sa Majesté Catholique seroit maitresse de proposer d'autres conditions analogues au but principal de l'alliance, et conformer aux lois de l'égalité, de la réciprocité et de l'amitié.

Les Députés des Etats-Unis au nom de leurs commettans acceptent la présente Déclaration dans toute son étendue, et le Député des dits Etats spécialement chargé des pleinpouvoirs pour traiter avec la Couronne d'Espagne, promet de signer à la première réquisition de Sa Majesté Catholique l'acte ou les actes nécessaires, pour lui rendre communes les stipulations des traités ci-dessus relatés, et le dit Député se prêtera de bonne foi à l'ajustement des points auxquels le Roi d'Espagne voudroit apporter quelques changemens, conformément aux

*Treaty between the Thirteen United States of North America and France. Signed at Versailles, February 25th, 1783.

Feb. 25, 1783.

Annulled.
1798, ch. 67.
Vol. I. p. 578.

A contract between his most Christian Majesty and the thirteen United States of North America, entered into at Versailles, on the 25th of February, 1783.

Un Contrat entre Sa Majesté le Roi très Chrétien et les treize Etats-Unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale, passé à Versailles le 25 Février 1783.

THE re-established peace between the belligerent powers, the advantages of a free commerce to all parts of the globe, and the independence of the thirteen United States of North America, acknowledged and founded on a solid and honorable basis, rendered it probable that the said States would be in a condition to provide hereafter for their necessities, by means of the resources within themselves, without being compelled to implore the continuation of the succours which the king has so liberally granted during the war: But the minister plenipotentiary of the said United States to his Majesty, having represented to him the exhausted state to which they have been reduced by a long and disastrous war, his Majesty has condescended to take into consideration the request made by the aforesaid minister, in the name of the Congress of the said States, for a new advance of money to answer numerous purposes of urgent and indispensable expenses in the course of the present year; his Majesty has in consequence determined, notwithstanding the no less pressing necessities of his own service, to grant to Congress a new pecuniary assistance, which he has fixed at the sum of six millions livres tournois, under the title of loan, and under the guaranty of the whole thirteen United States, which the minister of Congress has declared his acceptance of, with the liveliest acknowledgments, in the name of the said States.

LA paix rétablie entre les Puissances belligérantes, les avantages d'un commerce libre dans toutes les parties du globe et l'indépendance des treize Etats-Unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale, reconnue et fondée sur une base solide et honorable, promettoient de voir les dits Etats en situation de pourvoir dès à présent à leurs besoins par les ressources qui leur sont propres, sans être forcés d'implorer la continuation des secours que le Roi leur a si librement accordés pendant la durée de la guerre; mais le ministre plenipotentiary des dits Etats-Unis près Sa Majesté, lui ayant exposé l'épuisement où les a réduits une guerre longue et désastreuse, Sa Majesté a daigné prendre en considération la demande faite par le ministre susdit au nom du Congrès des dits Etats, d'une nouvelle avance d'argent pour subvenir à une multitude d'objets de dépenses urgentes et indispensables dans le cours de la présente année; Sa Majesté s'est déterminée en conséquence, malgré les besoins non moins pressants de son propre service, à accorder au Congrès une nouvelle assistance pécuniaire qu'elle a fixée à la somme de six millions de livres tournois, à titre de prêt et sous la garantie solidaire des treize Etats-Unis, ce que le ministre du Congrès a déclaré accepter avec la plus vive reconnaissance au nom des dits Etats.

Preamble.

New pecuniary assistance granted to Congress as a loan.

* This Treaty was ratified by the Old Congress on the 31st of October, 1783, and by the King of France on the 21st of December, 1783. The date of exchange of ratifications does not appear, but was probably that of the ratification by the King.

Periods for the payment of the loan assigned.

And as it is necessary to the good order of his Majesty's finances, and also useful to the operations of the finances of the United States, to assign periods for payment of the six millions livres in question, and to regulate the conditions and terms of reimbursement which should be made at his Majesty's royal treasury at Paris, after the manner of what has been stipulated for the preceding advances, by a former contract of the 16th July, 1782.

Contracting parties.

We, Charles Gravier, Count de Vergennes, &c., Counsellor of the King in his councils, Commander of his orders, chief of the royal council of finances, Counsellor of State, &c., Minister and Secretary of State, and of his commands and finances, invested with full powers by his Majesty, given to us for the purpose of these presents:—

And we, Benjamin Franklin, minister and plenipotentiary of the United States of North America, likewise invested with full powers by the Congress of said States for the same purpose of these presents, after having compared and duly communicated to each other our respective powers, have agreed on the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Money to be paid in twelve monthly payments, and upon what promise.

The payment of the six millions livres, French money above mentioned, shall be made from the funds of the royal treasury, in proportions of five hundred thousand livres during each of the twelve months of the present year, under the acknowledgments of the minister of the said United States, promising in the name of Congress, and in behalf of the thirteen United States, to reimburse and refund the said six millions livres, in ready money, at his Majesty's royal treasury, at the house of the sieur grand banker at Paris, with interest at five per cent. per annum, at periods hereafter stipulated in the third and fourth articles. The advances which his Majesty has been pleased to allow to be made on account of the six millions in question shall be deducted in the payments of the first month of this year.

Advances already made to be deducted from first payments.

Et comme il est nécessaire au bon ordre des finances de Sa Majesté et même utile aux opérations de la finance des Etats-Unis, d'assigner les époques de payment des six millions de livres dont il s'agit et de régler les conditions et les termes du remboursement qui doit en être fait au trésor royal de Sa Majesté à Paris, à l'exemple de ce qui a été stipulé pour les précédentes avances, par un premier contrat du 16 Juillet, 1782.

Nous, Charles Gravier, Comte de Vergennes, &c., Conseiller du Roi en tous ses conseils, Commandeur de ses ordres, Chef du Conseil Royal des Finances, Conseiller d'Etat et d'Epée, Ministre et Secrétaire d'Etat et des ses Commandemens et Finances, muni des pleins pouvoirs de Sa Majesté à nous donnés à l'effet des présentes.

Et nous, Benjamin Franklin, Ministre Plénipotentiaire des Etats-Unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale, pareillement muni des pouvoirs du Congrès des dits Etats au même effet des présentes, après en avoir conféré et nous être dûment communiqué nos pouvoirs respectifs, avons arrêté les articles qui suivent.

ARTICLE P^{re}.

Le payement de six millions de livres argent de France énoncées ci-dessus, sera fait des fonds du trésor royal, à raison de cinq cens mille livres par chacun des douze mois de la présente année, sur les reconnoissances du ministre des dits Etats-Unis, portant promesse au nom du Congrès et solidairement pour les treize Etats-Unis, de faire rembourser et restituer en argent comptant au trésor royal de Sa Majesté, au domicile du S. grand banquier à Paris, la dite somme de six millions de livres, avec les intérêts à cinq pour cent l'an, aux époques stipulées par les articles trois et quatre ci-après; les avances que Sa Majesté a bien voulu promettre qui soient faites à compte des six millions dont il s'agit, seront imputées sur les payemens des premiers mois de cette année.

ARTICLE II.

For better understanding the fixing of periods for the reimbursement of the six millions at the royal treasury, and to prevent all ambiguity on this head, it has been found proper to recapitulate here the amount of the preceding aids granted by the king to the United States, and to distinguish them according to their different classes. The first is composed of funds lent successively by his Majesty, amounting in the whole to the sum of eighteen millions livres, reimbursable in specie at the royal treasury in twelve equal portions of a million five hundred thousand livres each, besides the interest, and in twelve years, to commence from the third year after the date of the peace, the interest, beginning to reckon at the date of the peace, to be discharged annually, shall diminish in proportion to the reimbursement of the capital, the last payment of which shall expire in the year 1798.

The second class comprehends the loan of five millions Dutch florins, amounting, by a moderate valuation, to ten millions livres tournois, the said loan made in Holland, in 1781, for the service of the United States of North America, under the engagement of the king to refund the capital with interest, at four per cent. per annum, at the general counter of the states-general of the United Provinces of the Netherlands, in ten equal portions, reckoning from the sixth year of the date of the said loan, and under the like engagement on the part of the minister of Congress, and in behalf of the thirteen United States, to reimburse the ten millions of said loan in ready money at the royal treasury, with interest, at four per cent. per annum, in ten equal portions of a million each, and in ten periods from year to year, the first of which shall take place in the month of November, 1787, and the last in the same month, 1796. The whole conformable to the conditions expressed in the contract of the 16th July, 1782.

In the third class are comprehended the aids and subsidies fur-

ARTICLE 2°.

Pour l'intelligence de la fixation des termes de remboursement des six millions au trésor royal, et pour prévenir toute ambiguïté à ce sujet, il a été trouvé convenable de récapituler ici le montant des précédens secours accordés par le Roi aux Etats-Unis, et de les distinguer suivant leurs différentes classes; la première est composée des fonds successivement prêtés par Sa Majesté, montans ensemble à la somme de dix huit millions de livres, remboursables en espèces au trésor royal en douze parties égales de quinze cens mille livres chacune, outre les intérêts, et en douze années à commencer seulement de la troisième après l'époque de la paix; les intérêts commençant à courir de l'époque de la paix pour être acquittés chaque année, doivent diminuer à mesure et en proportion du remboursement des capitaux, dont le dernier terme écherra dans l'année 1798.

Indebtedness to France divided into three classes.

First class;

when to be repaid with interest.

Second class;

when to be repaid and at what rate of interest.

La seconde classe comprend l'emprunt de cinq millions de florins de Hollande, montant par évaluation modérée à dix millions de livres tournois, le dit emprunt fait en Hollande en 1781 pour le service des Etats-Unis de l'Amérique Septentrionale, sous l'engagement du Roi d'en restituer le capital avec les intérêts à 4 pour cent l'an, au comptoir général des Etats Généraux des Provinces-Unies des Pays-Bas, en dix parties égales à compter de la sixième année de la date du dit emprunt; et sous pareil engagement de la part du Ministre du Congrès et solidairement pour les treize Etats-Unis, de faire le remboursement des dix millions du dit emprunt, en argent comptant au trésor royal, avec les intérêts à 4 pour cent par an, en dix parties égales d'un million chacune et en dix termes d'année en année dont le premier écherra au mois de Novembre 1787, et le dernier dans le même mois de l'année 1796. Le tout conformément aux conditions exprimées au contrat du 16 Juillet 1782.

Dans la troisième classe sont compris les secours et subsides fournis

Third class.

Third class. nished to the Congress of the United States, under the title of gratuitous assistance, from the pure generosity of the king, three millions of which were granted before the treaty of February, 1778, and six millions in 1781; which aids and subsidies amount in the whole to nine millions livres tournois. His Majesty here confirms, in case of need, the gratuitous gift to the Congress of the said thirteen United States.

Vol. viii pp. 6, 12.

Gratuitous gift confirmed, in case, &c.

ARTICLE III.

New loan, when and how to be repaid, and at what rate of interest.

The new loan of six millions livres tournois, the subject of the present contract, shall be refunded and reimbursed in ready money at his Majesty's royal treasury, in six equal portions of a million each, with interest at five per cent. per annum, and in six periods, the first of which shall take place in the year 1797, and so on, from year to year, until 1802, when the last reimbursement shall be completed.

ARTICLE IV.

Interest when to begin to run, and to be paid annually in Paris.

The interest of five per cent. per annum, of the capital of the six millions mentioned in the preceding article, shall begin to be reckoned from the first of January, of the year 1784, and shall be paid in ready money at his Majesty's royal treasury at Paris on the same day of each year, the first of which shall take place the first of January, 1785, and so on, from year to year, until the definitive reimbursement of the capital; his Majesty being pleased, by a new act of generosity, to present and remit to the thirteen United States the partial interest of the present year, which the underwritten minister of Congress has declared to accept with acknowledgment in the name of the said United States.

ARTICLE V.

Interest payable to diminish as the payments are made.

The interest of the capital of the six millions shall diminish in proportion to the reimbursements at the periods fixed in the preceding artiau Congrès des Etats-Unis, à titre d'assistance gratuite de la pure générosité du Roi, dont trois millions accordés antérieurement au traité du mois de Février 1778, et six millions en 1781, desquels secours et subsides montans ensemble à neuf millions de livres tournois, Sa Majesté confirme ici en tant que de besoin, le don gratuit au Congrès desd^{ts}. treize Etats-Unis.

ARTICLE 3°.

Le nouveau prêt de six millions de livres tournois qui fait la matière du présent contrat, sera restitué et remboursé en argent comptant au trésor royal de Sa Majesté, en six parties égales d'un million chacune avec les intérêts à cinq pour cent par an, et en six termes dont le premier écherra en l'année 1797, et ainsi d'année en année jusqu'en 1802, que le dit remboursement sera effectué.

ARTICLE 4°.

Les intérêts à cinq pour cent l'an, du capital de six millions énoncé en l'article ci-dessus, commenceront à courir du premier Janvier de l'année 1784, et seront payés comptant au trésor royal de Sa Majesté à Paris, au même jour de chacune année dont la première écherra le premier Janvier 1785, et ainsi d'année en année jusqu'au remboursement définitif du capital, Sa Majesté voulant bien par un nouvel acte de générosité, faire don et remise aux treize Etats-Unis, des intérêts partiels de la présente année, ce que le ministre soussigné du Congrès a déclaré accepter avec reconnaissance, au nom des dits Etats-Unis.

ARTICLE 5°.

Les intérêts du capital de six millions diminueront dans la proportion des remboursements aux époques fixées en l'article ci-dessus; le Con-cle; Congress and the United States reserving, however, the liberty of freeing themselves by anticipated payments, should the state of their finances admit.

ARTICLE VI.

The contracting parties will reciprocally guaranty the faithful observation of the foregoing articles, the ratifications of which shall be exchanged in the space of nine months from the date of this present contract, or sooner if possible.

In faith whereof, we, the ministers plenipotentiaries of his Majesty and the Congress of the thirteen United States of North America, in virtue of our respective full powers, have signed the present contract, and thereunto affixed the seal of our arms.

grès et les Etats-Unis se réservent néanmoins la faculté d'accélérer leur libération par des remboursemens anticipés, si l'état de leur finance pouvoit le leur permettre.

ARTICLE 6°.

Les parties contractantes se garantissent réciproquement l'observation fidèle des articles ci-dessus, dont les ratifications seront échangées dans l'espace de neuf mois, ou plutôt s'il est possible, à compter de la datte du présent contrat.

UNITED STATES CONSULATE,
BANGKOK, Dec. 31, 1867.

Letter of the United States
Consul Bang-
ko

TO HON. F. W. SEWARD,
Assistant Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

SIR, — I have the honor to inform the Department that I have received a letter from his Excellency Chaw Phaya Praklang, Minister of Foreign Affairs, informing me that the Royal Counsellors for the Kingdom of Siam desire to change article first of the Treaty Regulations, and that the change shall go into effect on January 1st, 1868. The article alluded to is as follows, viz.:—

Change in the treaty regulations suggested.

“Every shipmaster upon anchoring his vessel at Paknam will deliver into the custody of the Custom-house officers, all his guns and ammunition, and a custom-house officer will then be appointed to the vessel and will proceed in her to Bangkok.”

The article as changed will require that the powder alone be left at Paknam, but that the guns be allowed to remain in the vessel. I have given my assent to the change and all the other Consuls have done the same.

The change is a very advantageous one to shipmasters, as in [the] shipping and reshipping of their guns, some of which were heavy, was attended with much delay and expense; whereas they generally have but a few pounds of powder on board which can be boxed up and put ashore in a very short time.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. M. HOOD U. S. Consul.

CHAW PHAYA PRAKLANG, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Siam, to MR. J. M. HOOD, U. S. Consul, Saying, — That the Senabodee of the Kingdom of Siam have considered this matter, and have come to the conclusion that, as they saw that Siam was near the water and that trading ships could ascend to the city, for this reason they asked a clause in the treaties, that all guns and powder should be landed at Paknam before the ship would ascend the river.

The Ministers Plenipotentiary also were of the same opinion, and yielded this point to the Siamese in the Treaties. When a vessel came in and the Chaw Pausknan at Paknam received the guns and powder off the vessel, that [they] found it very difficult to take care of the powder and were afraid of an explosion, and for this reason they did not receive the powder from the vessel but simply the guns. But now a long time since the Senabodee are of the opinion that the taking off of the guns at Paknam is a source of trouble to the vessels, for they took off guns belonging to many persons and when the vessels come [came] down again it was often after night, and when the Captains went for their guns the wrong ones were frequently taken, and when the vessel coming afterwards could not find her own guns, there was a fuss, and the Siamese officers had frequently to pay for the guns. Again the powder was left in the vessels, and they coming up and anchoring in the river, there was danger of an explosion and injury to the citizens here.

Therefore the Senabodee have ordered me to write to all the Consuls, and ask that the custom be changed from January 1st, 1868. We ask to take out the powder of the vessel at Paknam, but the guns can be left in the vessels and need not be taken out. If you are also of the same opinion, you will please inform masters of vessels and others under your protection to this effect. When the vessel comes to Paknam let them take out all the powder, but if they refuse to let the powder be taken out and it remains in the vessel and there arises any difficulty from that fact, we [beg to] claim indemnity according to the treaty.

I. I afseende å konventionens första artikel:

Det är öfverenskommet att om en medborgare i de Förenta Staterna af Amerika blifvit lagligen befriad från sitt amerikanska medborgarskap, eller, å andra sidan, om en been discharged from his Swedish or Norwegian citizenship, in the manner legally prescribed by the government of his original country, and then in the other country in a rightful and perfectly valid manner acquires citizenship, then an additional five years' residence shall no longer be required; but a person who has in that manner been recognized as a citizen of the other country shall, from the moment thereof, be held and treated as a Swedish or Norwegian citizen, and, reciprocally, as a citizen of the United States.

II. Relating to the second article of the convention.

Sweden, &c., naturalized in the United States and returning to their original country, liable to fulfil their military service, &c.

If a former Swede or Norwegian, who under the first article is to be held as an adopted citizen of the United States of America, has emigrated after he has attained the age when he becomes liable to military service, and returns again to his original country, it is agreed that he remains liable to trial and punishment for an action punishable by the laws of his original country and committed before his emigration, but not for the act of emigration itself, unless thereby have been committed any punishable action against Sweden or Norway, or against a Swedish or Norwegian citizen, such as non-fulfilment of military service, or desertion from the military force or from a ship, saving always the limitation established by the laws of the original country, and any other remission of liability to punishment; and that he can be held to fulfil, according to the laws, his military service, or the remaining part thereof.

III. Relating to the third article of the convention.

It is further agreed that if a Swede or Norwegian, who has become a naturalized citizen of the United States, renews his residence in Sweden or Norway without the intent to return to America, he shall be held by the government of the United States to have renounced his American citizenship.

Svensk eller Norrman af sitt fäderne-lands Regering blifvit lagligen befriad från sitt svenska eller norska medborgareskap, och han derefter i stadgad och giltig ordning vinner medborgareskap i det andra landet, skall i sådant fall ett femårigt vistande ej dessutom vara erforderligt, utan den utvandrare, som på så sätt blifvit erkänd såsom medborgare i det andra landet, skall från denna stund anses och behandlas såsom Svensk eller Norsk medborgare eller reciprokt såsom medborgare i de Förenta Staterna.

II. I afseende å konventionens andra artikel:

Om en Svensk eller Norsk utvandrare, som enligt Art. I. är att betrakta såsom upptagen till medborgare i de Förenta Staterna af Amerika, har utvandrat efter uppnåendet af den i lag bestämda utskriftsålder, och derefter ånyo återvändt till sitt ursprungliga hemland, så är det öfverenskommet att han förblifver åtal och straff underkastad för de efter hans ursprungliga hemlands lagar straffbara handlingar som han kan hafva begått före sin utvandring, men icke för sjelfva utvandringen, med mindre den innefattar någon särskild mot Sverige eller Norge, eller mot en Svensk eller Norsk medborgare föröfvad lagöfverträdelse, såsom icke-fullgörande af värnepligten eller rymning ur krigstjänst eller från fartyg, städse med förbehåll af den i hans ursprungliga hemlands lagar fastställda preskription samt af hvarje annan omständighet som medför frihet från ansvar; samt att han kan tillhållas att, i enlighet med vederbörande lagstiftning, fullgöra sin värnepligt eller den återstående delen deraf.

III. I afseende å konventionens tredje artikel:

Det är vidare öfverenskommet att om en Svensk eller Norsk medborgare som blifvit naturaliserad såsom medborgare i de Förenta Staterna af Amerika, ånyo bosätter sig i Sverige eller Norge, utan afsigt att återvända till Amerika, skall han af Förenta Staternas Regering anses hafva afstått från sitt amerikanska medborgareskap.

The intent not to return to America may be held to exist when the person so naturalized resides more than two years in Sweden or Norway.

[SEAL.] JOSEPH J. BARTLETT.

Afsigten att icke återvända till Amerika anses förefinnas när den sålunda naturaliserade personen uppehållit sig mer än två år i Sverige eller Norge.

[SIGILL.] C. WACHTMEISTER.

And whereas the said convention and protocol as amended have been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Stockholm on the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, by C. C. Andrews, Minister Resident of the United States, and Count C. Wachtmeister, Minister of State for Foreign Affairs of his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway;

Agreement between the United States and Spain, for the Settlement of certain Claims of Citizens of the United States, made by Daniel E. Sickles, Esq., Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at Madrid, and His Excellency Señor Don Cristino Martos, Minister of State of Spain. Concluded February 12, 1871. Feb. 12, 1871.

Memorandum of an arbitration for the settlement of the claims of citizens of the United States, or of their heirs, against the government of Spain for wrongs and injuries committed against their persons and property, or against the persons and property of citizens of whom the said heirs are the legal representatives, by the authorities of Spain, in the island of Cuba, or within the maritime jurisdiction thereof, since the commencement of the present insurrection.

1. It is agreed that all such claims shall be submitted to arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Secretary of State of the United States, another by the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Spain at Washington, and these two to name an umpire who shall decide all questions upon which they shall be unable to agree; and in case the place of either arbitrator or of the umpire shall from any cause become vacant, such vacancy shall be filled forthwith in the manner herein provided for the original appointment. Claims of citizens of the United States against the government of Spain to be submitted to arbitrators, and in case of disagreement to umpire.

2. The arbitrators and umpire so named shall meet at Washington within one month from the date of their appointment, and shall, before proceeding to business, make and subscribe a solemn declaration that they will impartially hear and determine, to the best of their judgment, and according to public law and the treaties in force between the two countries and these present stipulations, all such claims as shall, in conformity with this agreement, be laid before them on the part of the government of the United States; and such declaration shall be entered upon the record of their proceedings. Arbitrators and umpire to meet at Washington, &c.

3. Each government may name an advocate to appear before the arbitrators or the umpire, to represent the interests of the parties respectively. Each government may name an advocate.

4. The arbitrators shall have full power, subject to these stipulations, and it shall be their duty, before proceeding with the hearing and decision of any case, to make and publish convenient rules prescribing the time and manner of the presentation of claims and of the proof thereof; and any disagreement with reference to the said rules of proceeding shall be decided by the umpire. It is understood that a reasonable period shall be allowed for the presentation of the proofs; that all claims, and the testimony in favor of them, shall be presented only through the government of the United States; that the award made in each case shall be in writing, and, if indemnity be given, the sum to be paid shall be expressed in the gold coin of the United States. Power of arbitrators. Claims to be presented through government of the United States.

5. The arbitrators shall have jurisdiction of all claims presented to them by the government of the United States for injuries done to citizens of the United States by the authorities of Spain, in Cuba, since the first day of October, 1868. Adjudications of the tribunals in Cuba concerning citizens of the United States, made in the absence of the parties Jurisdiction of arbitrators.

Jurisdiction of arbitrators. interested, or in violation of international law or of the guarantees and forms provided for in the treaty of October 27, 1795, between the United States and Spain, may be reviewed by the arbitrators, who shall make such award in any such case as they shall deem just. No judgment of a Spanish tribunal, disallowing the affirmation of a party that he is a citizen of the United States, shall prevent the arbitrators from hearing a reclamation presented in behalf of said party by the United States Government; nevertheless, in any case heard by the arbitrators, the Spanish Government may traverse the allegation of American citizenship, and thereupon competent and sufficient proof thereof will be required. The commission having recognized the quality of American citizens in the claimants, they will acquire the rights accorded to them by the present stipulations as such citizens. And it is further agreed that the arbitrators shall not have jurisdiction of any reclamation made in behalf of a native-born Spanish subject, naturalized in the United States, if it shall appear that the same subject-matter having been adjudicated by a competent tribunal in Cuba, and the claimant, having appeared therein, either in person or by his duly appointed attorney, and being required by the laws of Spain to make a declaration of his nationality, failed to declare that he was a citizen of the United States; in such case, and for the purposes of this arbitration, it shall be deemed and taken that the claimant, by his own default, had renounced his allegiance to the United States. And it is further agreed that the arbitrators shall not have jurisdiction of any demands growing out of contracts.

Expenses of arbitration, and how defrayed.

Allowance to advocates.

Secretary and his pay.

Awards to be final and conclusive.

6. The expenses of the arbitration will be defrayed by a percentage to be added to the amount awarded. The compensation of the arbitrators and umpire shall not exceed three thousand dollars each; the same allowance shall be made to each of the two advocates representing respectively the two governments; and the arbitrators may employ a secretary at a compensation not exceeding the sum of five dollars a day for every day actually and necessarily given to the business of the arbitration.

7. The two governments will accept the awards made in the several cases submitted to the said arbitration as final and conclusive, and will give full effect to the same in good faith and as soon as possible.

ARTICOLO X.

Le navi di una delle parti contraenti avranno libertà, nei territori e domini dell' altra, di completare il proprio equipaggio per poter proseguire il viaggio con marinai arruolati nel paese, semprechè si conformino ai regolamenti locali, e il loro arruolamento sia volontario.

ARTICOLO XI.

Le navi, mercanzie ed effetti appartenenti ai cittadini di una delle alte parti contraenti, che fossero state predate dai pirati, sia nei limiti della sua giurisdizione, o in alto mare, e fossero trasportate o trovate nelle rade, fiumi, baie, porti o domini dell' altra, saranno consegnate ai loro proprietari, purchè provino in debita e giusta forma i loro diritti avanti i competenti tribunali; è però inteso che il reclamo dovrà esser fatto nel termine di un (1) anno, dalle parti stesse, dai loro procuratori, o dagli agenti dei rispettivi governi.

ARTICOLO XII.

Le alte parti contraenti conven-gono che verificandosi la sventura di una guerra fra esse, la proprietà privata dei rispettivi loro cittadini e sudditi, ad eccezione del contrabbando di guerra, sarà in alto mare, o in qualsivoglia altro luogo, esente da cattura o da confisca per parte delle navi armate o delle forze militari d'ambo le parti; è però inteso che questa esenzione non si estenderà alle navi ed ai loro carichi che tentino di entrare in un porto bloccato dalle forze navali dell' una o dell' altra parte.

ARTICOLO XIII.

Le alte parti contraenti avendo convenuto che lo stato di guerra fra una di esse ed una terza potenza, eccetto i casi di blocco e di contrabbando di guerra, non avrà influenza sul commercio neutrale dell' altra e bramando rimuovere ing every uncertainty which may hitherto have arisen respecting that which, upon principles of fairness and justice, ought to constitute a legal blockade, they hereby expressly declare that such places only shall be considered blockaded as shall be actually invested by naval forces capable of preventing the entry of neutrals and so stationed as to create an evident danger on their part to attempt it.

ARTICLE XIV.

And whereas it frequently happens that vessels sail for a port or a place belonging to an enemy without knowing that the same is besieged, blockaded, or invested, it is agreed that every vessel so circumstanced may be turned away from such port or place, but shall not be detained, nor shall any part of her cargo, if not contraband of war, be confiscated, unless, after a warning of such blockade or investment from an officer commanding a vessel of the blockading forces, by an indorsement of such officer on the papers of the vessel, mentioning the date and the latitude and longitude where such indorsement was made, she shall again attempt to enter; but she shall be permitted to go to any other port or place she shall think proper. Nor shall any vessel of either, that may have entered into such a port before the same was actually besieged, blockaded, or invested by the other, be restrained from quitting such place with her cargo, nor, if found therein after the reduction and surrender, shall such vessel or her cargo be liable to confiscation, but they shall be restored to the owners thereof; and if any vessel, having thus entered any port before the blockade took place, shall take on board a cargo after the blockade be established, she shall be subject to being warned by the blockading forces to return to the port blockaded and discharge the said cargo, and if, after receiving the said warning, the vessel shall persist in going out with the cargo, she shall be liable to the same consequences ogni dubbio che possa finora essere stato elevato riguardo a quanto è necessario secondo i principii d'equità e di giustizia per costituire un blocco legale, esse qui espressamente dichiarano che saranno considerati come bloccati soltanto quei luoghi che saranno effettivamente investiti da forze navali capaci d'impedire l'accesso ai neutrali, e in guisa disposte da creare, per parte dei medesimi un evidente pericolo d'entrarvi.

ARTICOLO XIV.

E considerando che di frequente avviene che dei bastimenti navighino verso un porto od una piazza appartenente al nemico senza sapere che la medesima è assediata, bloccata o investita, è convenuto che ogni bastimento che si trovi in siffatte condizioni può essere respinto da quel porto o da quella piazza, ma non sarà trattenuto, né verrà confiscata nessuna parte del suo carico se non sia contrabbandando di guerra, a meno che dopo d'aver ricevuto avviso di quel blocco od investimento da un ufficiale comandante una nave che faccia parte delle forze bloccanti, mediante annotazione fatta dal medesimo sulle carte della nave, menzionante la data e la latitudine e longitudine in cui detta annotazione venne fatta, esso di nuovo tenterà di entrare; ma gli sarà però messo d'andare ad un altro porto o piazza che crederà conveniente. E neppure a nessuna nave di una delle parti che sia entrata in un porto prima che questo fosse effettivamente assediato, bloccato o investito dall'altra, sarà impedito d'uscirne col suo carico, e se dessa vi si trovasse dentro dopo la conquista o la resa, non sarà, né la nave né il suo carico, sottoposto a confisca, ma saranno restituiti ai loro proprietari, e se una nave entrata nel porto prima che il blocco avesse luogo, dopo che questo è stabilito, prenderà a bordo del carico, sarà soggetta ad essere avvertita dalle forze bloccanti di tornare al porto bloccato e di deporre il carico, e se dopo aver ricevuto tale

ARTICLE XV.

What to be deemed contraband of war.

The liberty of navigation and commerce secured to neutrals by the stipulations of this treaty shall extend to all kinds of merchandise, excepting those only which are distinguished by the name of contraband of war. And, in order to remove all causes of doubt and misunderstanding upon this subject, the contracting parties expressly agree and declare that the following articles, and no others, shall be considered as comprehended under this denomination:—

1. Cannons, mortars, howitzers, swivels, blunderbusses, muskets, fuses, rifles, carbines, pistols, pikes, swords, sabres, lances, spears, halberds, bombs, grenades, powder, matches, balls, and all other things belonging to, and expressly manufactured for, the use of these arms.

2. Infantry belts, implements of war and defensive weapons, clothes cut or made up in a military form and for a military use.

3. Cavalry belts, war saddles and holsters.

4. And generally all kinds of arms and instruments of iron, steel, brass, and copper, or of any other materials manufactured, prepared, and formed expressly to make war by sea or land.

ARTICLE XVI.

Citizens of either country may sail from any port and trade in the ports, &c., of those who are enemies of the other.

It shall be lawful for the citizens of the United States, and for the subjects of the Kingdom of Italy, to sail with their ships with all manner of liberty and security, no distinction being made who are the proprietors of the merchandise laden thereon, from any port to the places of those who now are, or hereafter shall be, at enmity, with either of the contracting parties. It shall likewise be lawful for the citizens

ARTICOLO XV.

La libertà di commercio e navigazione, dal presente trattato assicurata ai neutrali, si estenderà ad ogni specie di mercanzia, eccetto solo quelle indicate col nome di contrabbando di guerra. E allo scopo di rimuovere ogni causa di dubbio e malinteso in questo proposito, le parti contraenti espressamente convengono e dichiarano che i seguenti oggetti e non altri si considereranno compresi sotto questa denominazione:—

1°. Cannoni, mortai, colubrine, obizzi, moschetti, fucili semplici o rigati, rifles, pistole, carabine, picche, spade, sciabole, lance, aste, alabarde, bombe, granate, polvere, micce, palle ed ogni altra cosa ad esse appartenente ed espressamente manipolata per uso di queste armi.

2°. Cuojami da infanteria, istrumenti di guerra e armi difensive, abiti tagliati o fatti in forma militare e per uso militare.

3°. Cuojami da cavalleria, selle da guerra e fonde.

4°. E generalmente ogni specie di armi ed istrumenti di ferro, acciaio, ottone e rame, e d'ogni altra materia manufatta, preparata e formata espressamente a far la guerra in terra o in mare.

ARTICOLO XVI.

Sarà permesso ai sudditi dell'Italia ed ai cittadini degli Stati Uniti di navigare coi loro bastimenti, con ogni maniera di libertà e sicurezza, senza che nessuna distinzione venga fatta a chi appartengono le mercanzie caricate sui medesimi, da qualunque porto ai luoghi di coloro che sono o saranno in avvenire in ostilità con una o coll'altra delle parti contraenti. Sarà parimente permesso ai precitati cittadini di aforesaid to sail with the ships and merchandise before mentioned, and to trade with the same liberty and security from the places, ports, and havens of those who are enemies of both or either party without any opposition or disturbance whatever, not only directly from the places of the enemy before mentioned to neutral places, but also from one place belonging to an enemy to another place belonging to an enemy, whether they be under the jurisdiction of one power or under several; and it is hereby stipulated that free ships shall also give freedom to goods, and that every thing shall be deemed to be free and exempt from capture which shall be found on board the ships belonging to the citizens of either of the contracting parties, although the whole lading or any part thereof should appertain to the enemies of the other, contraband goods being always excepted. It is also agreed, in like manner, that the same liberty be extended to persons who are on board of a free ship; and they shall not be taken out of that free ship unless they are officers or soldiers, and in the actual service of the enemy. Provided, however, and it is hereby agreed, that the stipulations in this article contained, declaring that the flag shall cover the property, shall be understood as applying to those powers only who recognize this principle, but if either of the two contracting parties shall be at war with a third, and the other neutral, the flag of the neutral shall cover the property of enemies whose governments acknowledge this principle, and not of others.

ARTICLE XVII.

All vessels sailing under the flag of the United States, and furnished with such papers as their laws require, shall be regarded in Italy as vessels of the United States, and, reciprocally, all vessels sailing under the flag of Italy, and furnished with the papers which the laws of Italy require, shall be regarded in the United States as Italian vessels.

Ed è pure qui stipulato che nave libera rende libera la merce, e che sarà reputato libero ed esente da cattura tutto ciò che sarà trovato a bordo delle navi appartenenti ai cittadini di una delle parti contraenti, quantunque l'intero carico, od una parte di esso appartenga ai nemici dell'altra, eccetto sempre il contrabbando di guerra. È inoltre convenuto nello stesso modo, che la stessa libertà si estenda alle persone che si trovano a bordo di nave libera, e che esse non ne verranno tolte a meno che non sieno ufficiali o soldati, e al servizio attuale del nemico. A condizione tuttavia, e questo è qui convenuto, che le disposizioni contenute in questo articolo, le quali dichiarano che la bandiera cuopre la proprietà, s'intenderanno applicabili solo a quelle potenze che riconoscono questo principio, ma se una delle due parti contraenti sarà in guerra con una terza potenza, e l'altra neutrale, la bandiera del neutrale cuoprirà la proprietà dei nemici, i governi dei quali riconoscono questo principio, e non degli altri.

ARTICOLO XVII.

Tutti i bastimenti che navigheranno sotto la bandiera d'Italia, muniti delle carte richieste dalla legislazione della medesima, saranno negli Stati Uniti considerati come bastimenti dell'Italia, e reciprocamente tutti i bastimenti che navigheranno sotto la bandiera degli Stati Uniti, muniti delle carte richieste dalla legislazione dei medesimi, saranno considerati in Ita-

ARTICLE XVIII.

Examination on the high seas, of the merchant vessels of one country, by the war vessels of the other.

In order to prevent all kinds of disorder in the visiting and examination of the ships and cargoes of both the contracting parties on the high seas, they have agreed, mutually, that whenever a vessel of war shall meet with a vessel not of war of the other contracting party, the first shall remain at a convenient distance, and may send its boat, with two or three men only, in order to execute the said examination of the papers, concerning the ownership and cargo of the vessel, without causing the least extortion, violence, or ill-treatment; and it is expressly agreed that the unarmed party shall in no case be required to go on board the examining vessel for the purpose of exhibiting his papers, or for any other purpose whatever.

ARTICLE XIX.

Provision as to vessels under convoy.

It is agreed that the stipulations contained in the present treaty, relative to the visiting and examining of a vessel, shall apply only to those which sail without a convoy; and when said vessels shall be under convoy the verbal declaration of the commander of the convoy, on his word of honor, that the vessels under his protection belong to the nation whose flag he carries, and when bound to an enemy's port, that they have no contraband goods on board, shall be sufficient.

ARTICLE XX.

Commanders of ships of war to be punished, and to be liable in damages for outrages upon the persons or property of the citizens of the other country.

In order effectually to provide for the security of the citizens and subjects of the contracting parties, it is agreed between them that all commanders of ships of war of each party, respectively, shall be strictly enjoined to forbear from doing any damage to, or committing any outrage against, the citizens or subjects of the other, or against their vessels or property; and if the said comlia come bastimenti degli Stati Uniti.

ARTICOLO XVIII.

Allo scopo d'impedire ogni disordine nella visita e nell'esame delle navi e dei carichi d'ambidue le parti contraenti, in alto mare, esse hanno mutuamente consentito che qualora una nave da guerra ne incontri un'altra che tale non sia, dell'altra parte contraente, la prima rimarrà a conveniente distanza e potrà inviare il suo battello con due o tre uomini solamente affine di procedere al suddetto esame delle carte concernenti la proprietà della nave e del carico, senza ragionare la minima estorsione, violenza o cattivi trattamenti. Ed è espressamente convenuto che in niun caso si esigerà che la parte non armata vada a bordo della nave che vuol far la visita per mostrare le sue carte o per qualunque altro siasi scopo.

ARTICOLO XIX.

È convenuto che le disposizioni contenute nell'presente Trattato relative alla visita ed all'esame di una nave, saranno applicabili solo a quelle che navigano senza un convoglio, e nel caso contrario la dichiarazione verbale del comandante del convoglio sulla sua parola d'onore che le navi poste sotto la sua protezione appartengono alla nazione di cui egli porta la bandiera, e, quando sien diretti ad un porto nemico, che non hanno contrabbando di guerra, sarà sufficiente.

ARTICOLO XX.

Allo scopo di provvedere efficacemente alla sicurezza dei cittadini e sudditi delle parti contraenti, esse convengono tra loro che sarà rigorosamente prescritto a tutti i comandanti delle navi da guerra di ciascuna parte rispettivamente, d'astenersi dal far danno o commettere oltraggi sulle persone dei cittadini o sudditi dell'altra, o sulle loro navi o proprietà; e se i sopradetti coman-manders shall act contrary to this stipulation, they shall be severely punished, and made answerable in their persons and estates for the satisfaction and reparation of said damages, of whatever nature they may be.

ARTICLE XXI.

If by any fatality, which cannot be expected, and which may God avert, the two contracting parties should be engaged in a war with each other, they have agreed and do agree, now for then, that there shall be allowed the term of six months to the merchants residing on the coasts and in the ports of each other, and the term of one year to those who dwell in the interior, to arrange their business and transport their effects wherever they please, with the safe conduct necessary to protect them and their property, until they arrive at the ports designated for their embarkation. And all women and children, scholars of every faculty, cultivators of the earth, artisans, mechanics, manufacturers, and fishermen, unarmed and inhabiting the unfortified towns, villages, or places, and, in general, all others whose occupations are for the common subsistence and benefit of mankind, shall be allowed to continue their respective employments and shall not be molested in their persons, nor shall their houses or goods be burnt or otherwise destroyed, nor their fields wasted by the armed force of the belligerent in whose power, by the events of war, they may happen to fall; but, if it be necessary that any thing should be taken from them for the use of such belligerent, the same shall be paid for at a reasonable price.

And it is declared that neither the pretence that war dissolves treaties, nor any other whatever, shall be considered as annulling or suspending this article; but, on the contrary, that the state of war is precisely that for which it is provided, and during which its provisions are to be sacredly observed as the most danti agiranno contrariamente a queste disposizioni, saranno severamente puniti e resi responsabili nelle loro persone e proprietà per la soddisfazione e riparazione dei predetti danni di qualunque natura essi sieno.

ARTICOLO XXI.

Treaty between the United States and Great Britain. Claims, Fisheries, Navigation of the St. Lawrence, &c.; American Lumber on the River St. John; Boundary. Concluded May 8, 1871; Ratifications exchanged June 17, 1871; Proclaimed July 4, 1871. May 8, 1871.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a treaty, between the United States of America and her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, concerning the settlement of all causes of difference between the two countries, was concluded and signed at Washington by the high commissioners and plenipotentiaries of the respective governments on the eighth day of May last; which treaty is word for word, as follows:— Preamble.

The United States of America and her Britannic Majesty, being desirous to provide for an amicable settlement of all causes of difference between the two countries, have for that purpose appointed their respective plenipotentiaries, that is to say: The President of the United States has appointed, on the part of the United States, as Commissioners in a Joint High Commission and Plenipotentiaries, Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State; Robert Cumming Schenck, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Great Britain; Samuel Nelson, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; Ebenezer Rockwood Hoar, of Massachusetts; and George Henry Williams, of Oregon; and her Britannic Majesty, on her part, has appointed as her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries, the Right Honourable George Frederick Samuel, Earl de Grey and Earl of Ripon, Viscount Goderich, Baron Grantham, a Baronet, a Peer of the United Kingdom, Lord President of her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, etc., etc.; the Right Honourable Sir Stafford Henry Northcote, Baronet, one of her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, a Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, etc., etc.; Sir Edward Thornton, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America; Sir John Alexander Macdonald, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, a member of her Majesty's Privy Council for Canada, and Minister of Justice and Attorney-General of her Majesty's Dominion of Canada; and Mountague Bernard, Esquire, Chichele Professor of International Law in the University of Oxford. Contracting parties.

And the said plenipotentiaries, after having exchanged their full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed to and concluded the following articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Whereas differences have arisen between the government of the United States and the government of her Britannic Majesty, and still exist, growing out of the acts committed by the several vessels which have given rise to the claims generically known as the "Alabama claims:" Alabama claims to be referred to arbitration.

And whereas her Britannic Majesty has authorized her high commissioners and plenipotentiaries to express, in a friendly spirit, the regret felt by her Majesty's government for the escape, under whatever circumstances, of the Alabama and other vessels from British ports, and for the depredations committed by those vessels:

Arbitrators,
and how to be named.

Now, in order to remove and adjust all complaints and claims on the part of the United States, and to provide for the speedy settlement of such claims, which are not admitted by her Britannic Majesty's government, the high contracting parties agree that all the said claims, growing out of acts committed by the aforesaid vessels, and generically known as the "Alabama claims," shall be referred to a tribunal of arbitration to be composed of five arbitrators, to be appointed in the following manner, that is to say: One shall be named by the President of the United States; one shall be named by her Britannic Majesty; his Majesty the King of Italy shall be requested to name one; the President of the Swiss Confederation shall be requested to name one; and his Majesty the Emperor of Brazil shall be requested to name one.

Vacancies how filled.

In case of the death, absence, or incapacity to serve of any or either of the said arbitrators, or, in the event of either of the said arbitrators omitting or declining or ceasing to act as such, the President of the United States, or her Britannic Majesty, or his Majesty the King of Italy, or the President of the Swiss Confederation, or his Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, as the case may be, may forthwith name another person to act as arbitrator in the place and stead of the arbitrator originally named by such head of a state.

And in the event of the refusal or omission for two months after receipt of the request from either of the high contracting parties of his Majesty the King of Italy, or the President of the Swiss Confederation, or his Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, to name an arbitrator either to fill the original appointment or in the place of one who may have died, be absent, or incapacitated, or who may omit, decline, or from any cause cease to act as such arbitrator, his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway shall be requested to name one or more persons, as the case may be, to act as such arbitrator or arbitrators.

ARTICLE II.

Arbitrators to meet when and where;
their powers;
a majority to decide.

The arbitrators shall meet at Geneva, in Switzerland, at the earliest convenient day after they shall have been named, and shall proceed impartially and carefully to examine and decide all questions that shall be laid before them on the part of the governments of the United States and her Britannic Majesty respectively. All questions considered by the tribunal, including the final award, shall be decided by a majority of all the arbitrators.

Agent of each party.

Each of the high contracting parties shall also name one person to attend the tribunal as its agent to represent it generally in all matters connected with the arbitration.

ARTICLE III.

Case of each party, &c., when to be given to arbitrators.

The written or printed case of each of the two parties, accompanied by the documents, the official correspondence, and other evidence on which each relies, shall be delivered in duplicate to each of the arbitrators and to the agent of the other party as soon as may be after the organization of the tribunal, but within a period not exceeding six months from the date of the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

Counter case,
&c.

Within four months after the delivery on both sides of the written or printed case, either party may, in like manner, deliver in duplicate to each of the said arbitrators, and to the agent of the other party, a counter case and additional documents, correspondence, and evidence, in reply to the case, documents, correspondence, and evidence so presented by the other party.

The arbitrators may, however, extend the time for delivering such counter case, documents, correspondence, and evidence, when, in their judgment, it becomes necessary, in consequence of the distance of the place from which the evidence to be presented is to be procured.

Time may be extended.

If in the case submitted to the arbitrators either party shall have specified or alluded to any report or document in its own exclusive possession without annexing a copy, such party shall be bound, if the other party thinks proper to apply for it, to furnish that party with a copy thereof; and either party may call upon the other, through the arbitrators, to produce the originals or certified copies of any papers adduced as evidence, giving in each instance such reasonable notice as the arbitrators may require.

Documents and papers to be produced.

ARTICLE V.

It shall be the duty of the agent of each party, within two months after the expiration of the time limited for the delivery of the counter case on both sides, to deliver in duplicate to each of the said arbitrators and to the agent of the other party a written or printed argument showing the points and referring to the evidence upon which his government relies; and the arbitrators may, if they desire further elucidation with regard to any point, require a written or printed statement or argument, or oral argument by counsel upon it; but in such case the other party shall be entitled to reply either orally or in writing, as the case may be.

Arguments and briefs.

ARTICLE VI.

In deciding the matters submitted to the arbitrators, they shall be governed by the following three rules, which are agreed upon by the high contracting parties as rules to be taken as applicable to the case, and by such principles of international law not inconsistent therewith as the arbitrators shall determine to have been applicable to the case.

Rules, &c., to govern the arbitrators in their decisions.

RULES.

A neutral government is bound —

First, to use due diligence to prevent the fitting out, arming, or equipping, within its jurisdiction, of any vessel which it has reasonable ground to believe is intended to cruise or to carry on war against a power with which it is at peace; and also to use like diligence to prevent the departure from its jurisdiction of any vessel intended to cruise or carry on war as above, such vessel having been specially adapted, in whole or in part, within such jurisdiction, to warlike use.

Obligations of neutral government to use due diligence to prevent the fitting out, &c., within, &c., of vessels, &c.;

Secondly, not to permit or suffer either belligerent to make use of its ports or waters as the base of naval operations against the other, or for the purpose of the renewal or augmentation of military supplies or arms, or the recruitment of men.

not to permit its ports, &c., to be used for certain purposes;

Thirdly, to exercise due diligence in its own ports and waters, and, as to all persons within its jurisdiction, to prevent any violation of the foregoing obligations and duties.

to use due diligence within, &c., to prevent violation of obligations.

Her Britannic Majesty has commanded her high commissioners and plenipotentiaries to declare that her Majesty's government cannot assent to the foregoing rules as a statement of principles of international law which were in force at the time when the claims mentioned in Article I. arose, but that her Majesty's government, in order to evince its desire of strengthening the friendly relations between the two countries and of These rules not admitted to have been in force when the Alabama claims arose, but to govern in future cases.

making satisfactory provision for the future, agrees that in deciding the questions between the two countries arising out of those claims, the arbitrators should assume that her Majesty's government had undertaken to act upon the principles set forth in these rules.

And the high contracting parties agree to observe these rules as between themselves in future, and to bring them to the knowledge of other maritime powers, and to invite them to accede to them.

ARTICLE VII.

Decision to be made when and in what form;

The decision of the tribunal shall, if possible, be made within three months from the close of the argument on both sides.

It shall be made in writing and dated, and shall be signed by the arbitrators who may assent to it.

to be made as to each vessel separately.

The said tribunal shall first determine as to each vessel separately whether Great Britain has, by any act or omission, failed to fulfil any of the duties set forth in the foregoing three rules, or recognized by the principles of international law not inconsistent with such rules, and shall certify such fact as to each of the said vessels. In case the tribunal find that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty or duties as aforesaid, it may, if it think proper, proceed to award a sum in gross to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for all the claims referred to it; and in such case the gross sum so awarded shall be paid in coin by the government of Great Britain to the government of the United States, at Washington, within twelve months after the date of the award.

If Great Britain is found in fault, a gross sum may be awarded; when to be paid.

Award to be in duplicate, and to whom delivered.

The award shall be in duplicate, one copy whereof shall be delivered to the agent of the United States for his government, and the other copy shall be delivered to the agent of Great Britain for his government.

ARTICLE VIII.

Expenses of the arbitration, how to be defrayed.

Each government shall pay its own agent and provide for the proper remuneration of the counsel employed by it and of the arbitrator appointed by it, and for the expense of preparing and submitting its case to the tribunal. All other expenses connected with the arbitration shall be defrayed by the two governments in equal moieties.

ARTICLE IX.

Arbitrators to keep a record.

The arbitrators shall keep an accurate record of their proceedings, and may appoint and employ the necessary officers to assist them.

ARTICLE X.

If Great Britain is found in fault and a gross sum is not awarded, a board of assessors to be appointed to determine claims, &c.;

In case the tribunal finds that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty or duties as aforesaid, and does not award a sum in gross, the high contracting parties agree that a board of assessors shall be appointed to ascertain and determine what claims are valid, and what amount or amounts shall be paid by Great Britain to the United States on account of the liability arising from such failure, as to each vessel, according to the extent of such liability as decided by the arbitrators.

how to be constituted.

The board of assessors shall be constituted as follows: One member thereof shall be named by the President of the United States, one member thereof shall be named by her Britannic Majesty, and one member thereof shall be named by the representative at Washington of his Majesty the King of Italy; and in case of a vacancy happening from any cause, it shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

Vacancies.

Board to meet when.

As soon as possible after such nominations the board of assessors shall be organized in Washington, with power to hold their sittings there, or in New York, or in Boston. The members thereof shall severally subscribe a solemn declaration that they will impartially and carefully examine and decide, to the best of their judgment and according to justice and equity, all matters submitted to them, and shall forthwith proceed, under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe, to the investigation of the claims which shall be presented to them by the government of the United States, and shall examine and decide upon them in such order and manner as they may think proper, but upon such evidence or information only as shall be furnished by or on behalf of the governments of the United States and of Great Britain, respectively. They shall be bound to hear on each separate claim, if required, one person on behalf of each government, as counsel or agent. The assessors shall report to each government at or before the expiration of one year from the date of their first meeting the amount of claims decided by them up to the date of such report; if further claims then remain undecided, they shall make a further report at or before the expiration of two years from the date of such first meeting; and in case any claims remain undetermined at that time, they shall make a final report within a further period of six months.

They shall be bound to receive and consider all written documents or statements which may be presented to them by or on behalf of the respective governments in support of, or in answer to, any claim, and to hear, if required, one person on each side, on behalf of each government, as counsel or agent for such government, on each and every separate claim. A majority of the commissioners shall be sufficient for an award in each case. The award shall be given upon each claim in writing, and shall be signed by the commissioners assenting to it. It shall be competent for each government to name one person to attend the commissioners as its agent, to present and support claims on its behalf, and to answer claims made upon it, and to represent it generally in all matters connected with the investigation and decision thereof.

The high contracting parties hereby engage to consider the decision of the commissioners as absolutely final and conclusive upon each claim decided upon by them, and to give full effect to such decisions without any objection, evasion, or delay whatsoever.

ARTICLE XIV.

Every claim shall be presented to the commissioners within six months

ARTICLE XVII.

The high contracting parties engage to consider the result of the proceedings of this commission as a full, perfect, and final settlement of all such claims as are mentioned in Article XII. of this treaty upon either government; and further engage that every such claim, whether or not the same may have been presented to the notice of, made, preferred, or laid before the said commission, shall, from and after the conclusion of the proceedings of the said commission, be considered and treated as finally settled, barred, and thenceforth inadmissible.

Such assent having been given, the said articles shall remain in force for the period of ten years from the date at which they may come into operation; and further until the expiration of two years after either of the high contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of its wish to terminate the same; each of the high contracting parties being at liberty to give such notice to the other at the end of the said period of ten years or at any time afterward.

The decision as to a portion of the boundary line between the United States and British possessions west of the Rocky Mountains under the first article of the treaty of June 15, 1846, to be left to the arbitration of the Emperor of Germany.

Vol. ix. p. 869.

Whereas it was stipulated by Article I. of the treaty concluded at Washington on the 15th of June, 1846, between the United States and her Britannic Majesty, that the line of boundary between the territories of the United States and those of her Britannic Majesty, from the point on the forty-ninth parallel of north latitude up to which it had already been ascertained, should be continued westward along the said parallel of north latitude "to the middle of the channel which separates the continent from Vancouver's Island, and thence southerly, through the middle of the said channel and of Fuca Straits, to the Pacific Ocean;" and whereas the commissioners appointed by the two high contracting parties to determine that portion of the boundary which runs southerly through the middle of the channel aforesaid, were unable to agree upon the same; and whereas the government of her Britannic Majesty claims that such boundary line should, under the terms of the treaty above recited, be run through the Rosario Straits, and the government of the United States claims that it should be run through the Canal de Haro, it is agreed that the respective claims of the government of the United States and of the government of her Britannic Majesty shall be submitted to the arbitration and award of his Majesty the Emperor of Germany, who, having regard to the above-mentioned article of the said treaty, shall decide thereupon, finally and without appeal, which of those claims is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty of June 15, 1846.

The case of the two parties to be laid before the arbitrator: how and within what time.

The high contracting parties may include in the evidence to be considered by the arbitrator such documents, official correspondence, and other official or public statements bearing on the subject of the reference as they may consider necessary to the support of their respective cases.

After the written or printed case shall have been communicated by each party to the other, each party shall have the power of drawing up and laying before the arbitrator a second and definitive statement, if it think fit to do so, in reply to the case of the other party so communicated, which definitive statement shall be so laid before the arbitrator, and also be mutually communicated in the same manner as aforesaid, by each party to the other, within six months from the date of laying the first statement of the case before the arbitrator.

ARTICLE XXXVII.

If, in the case submitted to the arbitrator, either party shall specify or allude to any report or document in its own exclusive possession without annexing a copy, such party shall be bound, if the other party thinks proper to apply for it, to furnish that party with a copy thereof, and either party may call upon the other, through the arbitrator, to produce the originals or certified copies of any papers adduced as evidence, giving in each instance such reasonable notice as the arbitrator may require. And if the arbitrator should desire further elucidation or evidence with regard to any point contained in the statements laid before him, he shall be at liberty to require it from either party, and he shall be at liberty to hear one counsel or agent for each party, in relation to any matter, and at such time, and in such manner, as he may think fit.

TO THE POSTMASTER-GENERAL, &c., &c., &c.,

Convention for the Regulation of the Postal Intercourse between the United States of America and the Kingdom of Denmark. Nov. 7 and Dec. 1, 1871.

THE Post Department of the United States of America and the Danish Post Department have agreed upon employing the steamers in regular service between their territories, as well as the steamers engaged between Hamburg and Bremen on the one side, and American ports on the other, in order to establish an immediate exchange of mails, and have, for that purpose, consented to the following articles:

Exchange of mails between the United States and Denmark.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be an immediate exchange of correspondence between the United States of America and Denmark by means of the said steamers, and this correspondence shall embrace letters, newspapers, book-packets, prints of all kinds, (comprising maps, plans, engravings, drawings, photographs, lithographs, and all other like productions of mechanical processes, sheets of music, &c.,) and patterns or samples of merchandise; and such correspondence may be exchanged, whether originating in either of the said countries, or originating in countries to which these may respectively serve as intermediaries.

Correspondence, to include what.

ARTICLE II.

The exchange of correspondence shall take place between the post-offices to be hereafter designated by the two post departments; but either of the two offices so designated may at any time be discontinued, and others established by mutual consent.

Offices of exchange.

ARTICLE III.

The United States office shall make its own arrangements for the dispatch of its mails to Denmark, and in like manner the office of Denmark shall make its own arrangements for the dispatch of its mails to the United States. The mails shall be reciprocally forwarded by the regular routes of communication hereinbefore mentioned, and each office shall, at its own cost, pay the expense of the intermediate transportation (sea and territorial) of the mails which it dispatches to the other. It is also agreed that the cost, either in whole or in part, of the international ocean and territorial transit of the closed mails exchanged in both directions between the respective frontiers shall, upon application of either office, be first defrayed by that one of the two offices which shall have obtained from the intermediaries the most favorable pecuniary terms for such conveyance, and any amount so advanced by one for and on account of the other shall be promptly reimbursed.

Each country to dispatch its mails by regular routes.

Cost of international and territorial transit of closed mails.

ARTICLE IV.

The postage on ordinary letters sent from the United States to Denmark, or from Denmark to the United States, shall be respectively twelve (12) skilling rigsmønt, or seven (7) cents for a single letter.

Letter-postage;

The weight of a single letter shall not exceed fifteen grammes.

weight and rates of letters.

Letter postage. For every letter exceeding fifteen grammes there shall be paid a single rate of postage for every additional fifteen grammes or fraction of fifteen grammes. The weight stated by the dispatching office shall always be accepted, except in cases of manifest error.

The maximum weight of letters shall be two hundred and fifty (250) grammes.

ARTICLE V.

Prepayment of postage optional. Unpaid, &c., letters.

The prepayment of postage on ordinary letters shall be optional. If they shall be forwarded unpaid, or insufficiently paid, they shall, in the first case, be charged, besides the usual postage, with an additional postage of respectively four (4) cents, or six (6) skilling rigsmønt, and in the last case, besides the deficient postage, with similar additional postage.

ARTICLE VI.

Rates for other correspondence.

Notice.

Regulations for forwarding; postage to be prepaid;

packets not to contain, &c;

dimensions of packets;

prohibited articles;

customs duties.

On all other correspondence in the first article mentioned, the rates shall be, for the mails dispatched, that which the dispatching office shall adopt, adapted to the convenience and habits of its interior administration. But each office shall give notice to the other of the rate it adopts and of any subsequent change thereof. These articles shall be forwarded under regulations of the dispatching post-office, but always including the following:

1. The postage shall be prepaid. If, however, the postage on the correspondence mentioned in this article should not be wholly prepaid, the said correspondence shall still be forwarded to the place of destination; but it shall, in that case, beside the deficient postage, be charged with an additional postage, not exceeding four (4) cents in the United States, and six (6) skilling rigsmønt in Denmark.

2. No packet shall contain any thing which shall be closed against inspection, nor any written communication whatever, except to state from whom and to whom the packet is sent, and the number and price placed upon each pattern or sample of merchandise.

3. No packet may exceed two feet in length, or one foot in any other dimension.

4. Neither office shall be bound to deliver any article the importation of which may be prohibited by the laws or regulations of the country of destination.

5. The customs duties that may be chargeable in each of the two countries may be levied for the use of the customs.

ARTICLE VII.

Registered correspondence. Rates of postage;

to be prepaid.

No responsibility for loss.

Any correspondence mentioned in Article I. may be registered, and the postage chargeable on such correspondence shall always be prepaid. Registered correspondence shall, in addition to the postage, be subject to an international registration fee not exceeding ten (10) cents in the United States, and eight (8) skilling rigsmønt in Denmark, and this fee shall always be prepaid. Each office is at liberty to reduce this fee for the mails it dispatches. Each department shall use its best exertions for the safe delivery of registered correspondence, but is not responsible pecuniarily for the loss of any such correspondence.

ARTICLE VIII.

No other charges, &c.

It is further agreed that no charge of any kind, or on any account, otherwise than is herein expressly provided, shall be levied or collected in the country of destination on the letters or other correspondence exchanged.

ARTICLE IX.

As to the correspondence originating in one country and destined for the other, no account shall take place, and thus the post-office of the United States shall retain the whole amount of postage collected in the United States upon international paid correspondence forwarded to Denmark, and upon international unpaid or insufficiently paid correspondence received from Denmark; and in like manner the Danish post-office shall retain the whole amount of postage collected in Denmark upon international paid correspondence forwarded to the United States, and upon international unpaid or insufficiently paid correspondence received from the United States.

Each post-office to retain postage collected on, &c

However, each of the two departments shall be at liberty to claim accounts to be settled when it appears that in one country for one year there is levied twenty per cent more than in the other. If an account is claimed, it shall be regulated on the following basis:

Either country may claim an account.

From the total amount of postages and register fees collected by each office on letters, added to the total amount of prepaid postages and register fees on other correspondence which it dispatches, the dispatching office shall deduct the amount required for the conveyance of the mails between the two countries, and the amount of the two net sums shall be equally divided between the two offices.

Basis of account.

The deficient and additional postages mentioned in Article VI. shall not be included in the account between the two offices, but, unshared, shall belong to the office by which they are collected.

ARTICLE X.

The two post departments shall establish, by agreement, and in conformity with the arrangements in force at the time, the conditions upon which the two offices may respectively exchange in open mails the correspondence originating in or destined to other foreign countries to which they may reciprocally serve as intermediaries. It is always understood, however, that such correspondence shall only be charged with the American-Danish rate, augmented by the postage due to foreign countries, or for other exterior service.

Exchange of correspondence in open mails.

Rates.

It is agreed that the account of this correspondence shall, as to the international postages chargeable on the same, be regulated on the basis mentioned in the preceding article; but that the amount of the extra national postage, or other tax for exterior service, shall be reciprocally accounted for at full rates. Such charges for paid correspondence to, and for unpaid correspondence from, foreign countries, shall therefore be summarily entered on the respective letter-bills to the credit of the country through which the same is forwarded.

Basis of accounts.

ARTICLE XI.

The Post-office of the United States shall be granted the privilege of transit of closed mails through the Danish territory, exchanged in either direction, to and from Sweden and Norway, for a payment of four skilling rigsmønt per thirty (30) grammes net weight of letters, and two-thirds skilling rigsmønt per forty (40) grammes net weight of prints, patterns, and samples of merchandise. Correspondence exempt from postage, letters which cannot be delivered, as well as money-orders, shall not be charged with any transit rate.

Transit of closed mails through either country.

Reciprocally, the United States office grants to the office of Denmark the privilege of transit of the closed mails exchanged in either direction between the latter and any country to which the former may serve as intermediary, by its usual means of mail transportation, whether on sea or land, and the terms of transit shall be agreed upon when the exercise of the privilege is required.

ARTICLE XII.

Postal accounts to be transmitted quarterly.

Rate for conversion of money.

The postal accounts between the two offices shall be stated and transmitted quarterly, and verified as speedily as possible, and the balance found due shall be paid in the coin of the creditor country.

The rate for the conversion of the money of the two countries shall be one dollar for one rigsdaler, eighty-five skilling rigsmønt. The two offices shall, however, always be at liberty to agree upon another rate for the conversion.

ARTICLE XIII.

Missent correspondence, &c., to be returned.

Any ordinary correspondence wrongly addressed, or wrongly sent, shall without delay, and registered correspondence of all kinds, as well as ordinary letters not deliverable for any other cause than the aforesaid, within the issue of every month, be mutually returned at the expense of the originating office. All other correspondence which cannot be delivered shall remain at the disposition of the receiving office.

If any returned correspondence shall be charged with postage debited the office of destination, the said correspondence shall be returned for the amount of postage which was originally charged by the dispatching office.

ARTICLE XIV.

Transfer of closed mails from vessel to vessel.

When, in any port of either country, a closed mail is transferred from one vessel to another, without any expense to the office of the country where the transfer is made, such transfer shall not be subject to any postal charge by one office against the other.

ARTICLE XV.

Official communications.

Official communications between the two offices shall not be the occasion of any accounts on either side.

ARTICLE XVI.

Detailed regulations. See pp. 908, 911.

The two offices shall, by mutual consent, establish the detailed regulations which the carrying into execution of the articles included in this convention may require.

ARTICLE XVII.

When convention takes effect, and how long to continue;

The present convention shall be carried into effect on the day on which the two offices shall agree, and shall continue in force until one of the two contracting parties shall have announced to the other, within the issue of a calendar year, its intention to terminate it.

ARTICLE XVIII.

when to be ratified.

The present convention is to be ratified, and the ratifications are to be exchanged as soon as possible.

Done at Copenhagen, in duplicate original, this 7th day of November, 1871, and at Washington this 1st day of December, 1871.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA: April 20, 1871.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS objects of interest to the United States require that the Senate should be convened at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, the tenth day of May next, to receive and act upon such communications as may be made to it on the part of the Executive.

Preamble.

Now therefore I, ULYSSES S. GRANT, President of the United States, have considered it to be my duty to issue this my proclamation, declaring that an extraordinary occasion requires the Senate of the United States to convene for the transaction of business at the Capitol, in the city of Washington, on Wednesday, the tenth day of May next, at twelve o'clock on that day, of which all who shall at that time be entitled to act as members of that body are hereby required to take notice.

A PROCLAMATION.

THE act of Congress, entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and for other purposes," approved April 20, A. D 1871, being a law of extraordinary public importance, I consider it my duty to issue this my proclamation calling the attention of the people of the United States thereto; enjoining upon all good citizens, and especially upon all public officers, to be zealous in the enforcement thereof, and warning all persons to abstain from committing any of the acts thereby prohibited.

Attention of the people called to the act, 1871, ch. 22. Ante, p. 18.

Enforcement thereof enjoined, &c.

This law of Congress applies to all parts of the United States, and will be enforced everywhere, to the extent of the powers vested in the Executive. But inasmuch as the necessity therefor is well known to have been caused chiefly by persistent violations of the rights of citizens of the United States, by combinations of lawless and disaffected persons in certain localities lately the theatre of insurrection and military conflict, I do particularly exhort the people of those parts of the country to suppress all such combinations by their own voluntary efforts through the agency of local laws, and to maintain the rights of Law to be enforced everywhere.

horted to suppress illegal combinations, &c.

The Executive power to be fully used to secure to all citizens their constitutional legal rights.

How peace and cheerful obedience to law may be made to prevail, &c.

The National Government to protect citizens and restore peace and order where local communities fail, &c.

all citizens of the United States, and to secure to all such citizens the equal protection of the laws.

Fully sensible of the responsibility imposed upon the Executive by the act of Congress to which public attention is now called, and reluctant to call into exercise any of the extraordinary powers thereby conferred upon me, except in cases of imperative necessity, I do, nevertheless, deem it my duty to make known that I will not hesitate to exhaust the powers thus vested in the Executive, whenever and wherever it shall become necessary to do so for the purpose of securing to all citizens of the United States the peaceful enjoyment of the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution and laws.

It is my earnest wish that peace and cheerful obedience to law may prevail throughout the land, and that all traces of our late unhappy civil strife may be speedily removed. These ends can be easily reached by acquiescence in the results of the conflict, now written in our Constitution, and by the due and proper enforcement of equal, just, and impartial laws in every part of our country.

The failure of local communities to furnish such means for the attainment of results so earnestly desired imposes upon the National Government the duty of putting forth all its energies for the protection of its citizens of every race and color, and for the restoration of peace and order throughout the entire country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

of National Thanksgiving.

THE process of the seasons has again enabled the husbandman to garner the fruits of successful toil. Industry has been generally well rewarded. We are at peace with all nations, and tranquillity, with few exceptions, prevails at home. Within the past year we have in the main been free from ills which elsewhere have afflicted our kind. If some of us have had calamities, these should be an occasion for sympathy with the sufferers, of resignation on their part to the will of the Most High, and of rejoicing to the many who have been more favored.

I therefore recommend that, on Thursday, the thirtieth day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, and there make the usual annual acknowledgments to Almighty God for the blessings He has conferred upon them, for their merciful exemption from evils, and invoke His protection and kindness for their less fortunate brethren, whom, in His wisdom, He has deemed it best to chastise.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-sixth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Preamble.
1871, ch. 22.
Ante, p. 13.

WHEREAS in my proclamation of the twelfth day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, it was recited that certain unlawful combinations and conspiracies existed in certain counties in the State of South Carolina for the purpose of depriving certain portions and classes of the people of that State of the rights, privileges, and immunities and protection named in the Constitution of the United States and secured by the act of Congress, approved April the twentieth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States," and the persons composing such combinations and conspiracies were commanded to disperse and to retire peaceably to their homes within five days from said date;

And whereas by my proclamation of the seventeenth day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus were suspended in the counties named in said proclamation;

And whereas the county of Marion was named in said proclamations as one of the counties in which said unlawful combinations and conspiracies for the purposes aforesaid existed, and in which the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus were suspended;

And whereas it has been ascertained that in said county of Marion said combinations and conspiracies do not exist to the extent recited in said proclamations;

And whereas it has been ascertained that unlawful combinations and conspiracies of the character and to the extent and for the purposes described in said proclamations do exist in the county of Union in said State:

Now, therefore, I, ULYSSES S. GRANT, President of the United States of America, do hereby revoke, as to the said county of Marion, the suspension of the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus directed in my said proclamation of the seventeenth day of October, eighteen hundred and seventy-one;

And I do hereby command all persons in the said county of Union composing the unlawful combinations and conspiracies aforesaid to disperse and to retire peaceably to their homes within five days of the date hereof, and to deliver either to the marshal of the United States for the district of South Carolina, or to any of his deputies, or to any military officer of the United States within said county, all arms, ammunition, uniforms, disguises, and other means and implements used, kept, possessed, or controlled by them for carrying out the unlawful purposes for which the combinations and conspiracies are organized.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA: Nov. 10, 1871.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an act of Congress, entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and for other purposes," approved the twentieth day of April, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, power is given to the President of the United States, when, in his judgment, the public safety shall require it, to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus in any State or part of a State, whenever combinations and conspiracies exist in such State or part of a State for the purpose of depriving any portion or class of the people of such State of the rights, privileges, immunities, and protection named in the Constitution of the United States, and secured by the act of Congress aforesaid; and whenever such combinations and conspiracies do so obstruct and hinder the execution of the laws of any such State, and of the United States, as to deprive the people aforesaid of the rights, privileges, immunities, and protection aforesaid, and do oppose and obstruct the laws of the United States and their due execution, and impede and obstruct the due course of justice under the same; and whenever such combinations shall be organized and armed, and so numerous and powerful as to be able by violence either to overthrow or to set at defiance the constituted authorities of said State and of the United States within such State; and whenever, by reason of said causes, the conviction of such offenders and the preservation of the public peace shall become in such State or part of a State impracticable:

Preamble.
1871, ch. 22.
Ante, p. 13.

Revocation of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus as to Marion county, South Carolina. Persons composing unlawful combinations, &c., in Union county, South Carolina, ordered to disperse, &c., and deliver up their arms, &c.

And whereas such unlawful combinations and conspiracies for the purposes aforesaid are declared by the act of Congress aforesaid to be rebellion against the Government of the United States ;

And whereas, by said act of Congress, it is provided that, before the President shall suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, he shall first have made proclamation commanding such insurgents to disperse ;

And whereas on the third day of the present month of November the President of the United States did issue his proclamation, reciting therein, among other things, that such combinations and conspiracies did then exist in the county of Union, in the State of South Carolina, and commanding thereby all persons composing such unlawful combinations and conspiracies to disperse and retire peaceably to their homes within five days from the date thereof, and to deliver either to the marshal of the United States for the district of South Carolina, or to any of his deputies, or to any military officer of the United States within said county, all arms, ammunition, uniforms, disguises, and other means and implements used, kept, possessed, or controlled by them for carrying out the unlawful purposes for which the said combinations and conspiracies are organized ;

And whereas the insurgents engaged in such unlawful combinations and conspiracies within the county aforesaid have not dispersed and retired peaceably to their respective homes, and have not delivered to the marshal of the United States, or to any of his deputies, or to any military officer of the United States within said county, all arms, ammunition, uniforms, disguises, and other means and implements used, kept, possessed, or controlled by them for carrying out the unlawful purposes for which the combinations and conspiracies are organized, as commanded by said proclamation, but do still persist in the unlawful combinations and conspiracies aforesaid :

Writ of habeas corpus suspended in Union county, South Carolina.

Now, therefore, I, ULYSSES S. GRANT, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the United States and the act of Congress aforesaid, do hereby declare that, in my judgment, the public safety especially requires that the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus be suspended, to the end that such rebellion may be overthrown, and do hereby suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus within the county of Union, in said State of South Carolina, in respect to all persons arrested by the marshal of the United States for the said district of South Carolina, or by any of his deputies, or by any military officer of the United States, or by any soldier or citizen acting under the orders of said marshal, deputy, or such military officer within said county, charged with any violation of the act of Congress aforesaid during the continuance of such rebellion.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
